

1 John Lesson 28 Outline

“A New Love” 1 John 2:7-11

23 July 2025

Never has _____ been so clearly manifest as to be seen in its perfection as in Jesus Christ.

The newness isn't in the essential new commandment; the newness is in the manifestation of its perfect glory in the person of Jesus Christ.

Jesus loved His disciples to _____.

Christ is not the shadow but the substance of who God is.

While the disciples argue over who is the greatest, they overlook the washing of feet.

And so, Jesus does it in an amazing act of love.

This is the heart of God, perfect love, selfless sacrifice, perfect humility.

There's a newness and freshness to this love because it's now manifest _____ us, and for the first time it has been seen in Christ in all its perfection.

Whatever the relationship of the Holy Spirit to believers in the past was, it was a “with” and whatever it is to us, it's an “in.”

It's not so much the love that we give toward God but the love that God gives us that we give toward each other.

It's obvious the true light is Jesus.

The long-awaited age to come has arrived, it arrived with Messiah, favorable year of the Lord, the end of the age, the latter days, the last days have come.

We see here that love is not only as an old commandment and love as a new commandment, but love as a _____
_____.

If you don't see people the way God sees them, then He's not in control of your _____.

Our hearts go out in love to those who don't know the Lord;
enough to break our hearts over their lostness.

Love is not going to be the perfection of your life, but it will be the _____ of it.

If you don't have a love to be with God's people, it's clear evidence that you're in the darkness, no matter what you claim.

"Stumbling" would be literally, a way of expressing sinning against others.

There is a new commandment to love, added to an old commandment to love, and then John talks about the life of love.
