

Judgment Will Come to the Nations

Lesson 2 Outline

Matthew 25:31–32 11 January 2026

Page | 1

When Jesus comes again it does not involve an opportunity for people to make a _____ about Christ.

First of all, let's determine who the judge is.

“The Father judges no man but has committed all judgment to the Son.” John 5:22

The Father delegated judgment authority to the _____.

The most used title by Jesus of Himself is, Son of Man. Why?

Reason number one was that it confirmed His _____.

He came not to be ministered to, but to be minister and give His life.

The second reason was I believe it tended to be less _____.

Third, it kept His friends from being more _____.

He was simply saying, “I’m one of you. I’m a son of m/Man.

Page | 2

I think He chose to use Son of Man because it provides such a profound _____ to the titles that He will have when He comes in His glory.

When He comes again, He will call Himself _____.

This is no new message; the church waits for the coming of Jesus Christ.

The amazing, marvelous, incredible, indescribable, mysterious truth is not that Jesus will come a second time, but that He came the first time to do what He did. It is amazing that a holy God came to _____.

The Lord turns out all the lights in the universe, absolute blackness, and then appears as the Son of Man in blazing glory coming out of heaven.

He comes with His _____ as well.

The doors of heaven will open, but they have opened before, for the _____.

The King is coming; He is coming again!

Scriptures cited: Matt. 24, Matt. 25; John 5:22; Matt. 28:18, 25:31, 34, 40, 24:3; Jude 14; 2 Thess. 1:7-8; Matt. 24:29-30; Rev. 6:15-17; Col. 3:4; Rev 19:11, 4:1; Col. 3:4; Rev. 19:12, 13, 14, 15, 16