

But to “fulfill” something is “to complete something that’s already there.”

Some say, “it’s fulfilled, because He met its demands.”

That’s true, He did do that. But that still isn’t the heart of what it’s saying here.

He fulfilled the whole Old Testament law by being its fulfillment; not by what He said so much, not by what He did so much, but by what He _____.

He came to bring in everlasting righteousness by being the Messiah that the law predicted.

New Life Family Worship Center's Vision and Mission Statements:

New Life Family Worship Center desires to be a thoroughly biblical church that seeks God's presence and leadership. To that end, we are committed to proclaiming God's perfect law and His glorious gospel of grace in Jesus Christ throughout the world, and to "...contend earnestly for the faith which was once delivered to the saints" (Jude 3). "Therefore, whether you eat or drink, or whatever you do, do all to the glory of God." (1 Cor. 10:31).

In response to God's grace and love toward us, the mission of this congregation is to glorify the God of the Scriptures by promoting His worship, sharing His Word evangelistically, belonging to a God-centered fellowship which encourages us to grow spiritually while serving Him, and acting with love and compassion toward those in need. (Matt. 22:37-40; 28:16-20).

The law is preeminent because it is authored by God and secondly because it is _____ by the _____.

The prophets constantly sounded on the same thing: keep the moral law; keep the judicial law and keep the ceremonial law.

A prophet is, a mouth for God.

Thirdly then, the law is preeminent because it is _____ by _____.

The Old Testament is all that God wanted it to be. It is a wondrous, perfect, complete picture of the coming King and His Kingdom. And the King came to fulfill it all.

Jesus claimed _____ times in the New Testament, to be the theme of the whole Old Testament.

In what sense does Jesus fulfill the law?

Some say, “He filled it out, He colored it in.”
