Jeremiah 17:5, 7

God will also place different things in the way to challenge us and to grow us as we endeavor to serve in the calling that He has placed in front of us.

“The Lord will never create a life for us that makes Him unnecessary.”

What is God’s position on self-reliance?

Why was Jeremiah called the "weeping prophet"?

What was the sin of Judah?

- Idolatry _____
- Forsaking God _____
- Deep-Rooted Iniquity _____
- Trusting in Humans _____
- Breaking the Sabbath _____
- Social Injustice _____

The sins of Judah were so vile and the consequences so steep, that it is hard to understand why they couldn’t see them.

The man who trusts in God will be blessed.

We are called to total reliance on God and not seeking earthly security, emphasizing that true life and strength come only from Him.
