

Briefing Document: Fall of the World- Lesson 17

Sunday PM-June 28, 2026

Executive Summary

This document provides a comprehensive overview of the Millennial Kingdom, the 1,000-year earthly reign of Jesus Christ. Based on an analysis of the provided transcript, the core themes include the removal of Satan, the continued existence of human sin, and the shared governance of the world by Christ and his saints. The transition to this kingdom involves the incarceration of the "evil one" in the abyss and the physical restoration of the nation of Israel. Key takeaways include:

- The Persistence of Sin: Even without Satan's influence, sin will exist because of the natural human heart.
- The Reign of the Saints: Every believer from every era—Old Testament, the Church, and Tribulation martyrs—will have a role in governing the earth.
- A New Global Government: Christ will rule the entire world with absolute authority, perfect justice, and truth.
- Israel's Restoration: Israel will be spiritually reborn and physically replanted in their promised land, serving a central role in the kingdom.

The Nature of the Millennial Kingdom

The Millennial Kingdom is defined as the 1,000-year period following Christ's return to earth. While this is a time of unprecedented peace and health, it is not a world entirely free from the challenges of the human condition.

The Problem of Sin Without Satan

A common question regarding the Millennial Kingdom is whether sin can exist while Satan is bound. The source confirms that sin will indeed persist. This is because human beings possess a natural "sin nature" that does not require external demonic influence to manifest.

- Individual Responsibility: People often blame the devil for their personal failures, but the Bible teaches that lust and sin come from the flesh.
- The Population: The kingdom will be inhabited by "natural" survivors—Jews and Gentiles who believed in Christ during the Tribulation—and "glorified" saints. Children born to these natural survivors will still have a sinful nature and must personally choose to follow Jesus.
- Proof of Depravity: This period proves that human rebellion is a choice of the heart, not merely a result of being deceived by a "snake in the garden."

The Incarceration of the Serpent

The onset of the kingdom is marked by the removal of Satan. He is cast into the "abussos,"^[^1] or the abyss, a place where fallen angels are imprisoned.

- The Abyss: Mentioned seven times in the book of Revelation, this is a dungeon or pit where the "host of high ones" and the "kings of the earth" are gathered as prisoners.
 - The Timeline: Satan is bound for 1,000 years. After this time, he is briefly released to lead a final rebellion before his ultimate destruction in the lake of fire.
 - Deliverance: The common prayer "Thy kingdom come" is linked to the request "deliver us from the evil one." Total deliverance from Satan's influence only occurs when Christ's kingdom is established.

The Reign of the Saints

The governance of the Millennial Kingdom involves co-rule between Christ and his followers. The scriptures distinguish between various groups who are granted authority.

Identifying the Rulers

The Bible describes "they" who sit on thrones and "those" who were beheaded for their witness. Together, these groups represent the saints of all ages.

- Old Testament Saints: As promised in Daniel 7:18, "But the saints of the Most High shall receive the kingdom, and possess the kingdom forever, even forever and ever."
- The Apostles: Jesus promised the twelve disciples in Matthew 19:28 that "in the regeneration, when the Son of Man sits on the throne of His glory, you who have followed Me will also sit on twelve thrones, judging the twelve tribes of Israel."
- The Church: Followers of Christ today are described in 1 Peter 2:9 as a "royal priesthood," indicating their royal status. 1 Corinthians 6:2 also asks, "Do you not know that the saints will judge the world?"
- Tribulation Saints: Those who were martyred for refusing the mark of the beast will be resurrected to reign alongside Christ for the thousand years.

Social Dynamics

The kingdom will feature a co-mingling of people in physical bodies and those in glorified bodies. This is compared to how Jesus, after his resurrection, was able to eat and speak with his disciples while in a transformed state. Due to the lack of disease and a reversal of the curse on the earth, the population will likely explode as people live long lives, similar to the ages reached in the time of Adam and Methuselah.

Political and Spiritual Features

The Millennial Kingdom introduces a perfect form of government and a renewed spiritual environment for the entire planet.

The Political System

The governance of the world will be centralized under the "universal rule" of Christ.

- Absolute Authority: Christ will rule with a "rod of iron," meaning no outright rebellion will be tolerated. As stated in Psalms 72:11, "Yes, all kings shall fall down before Him; All nations shall serve Him."
- Righteous Dictatorship: Unlike human dictators, Christ's rule is perfectly just. Isaiah 11:4 notes that "with righteousness He shall judge the poor, and decide with equity for the meek of the earth."
- Global Unity: Christ will rule over the "ethne,"^[^2] meaning all nations and people groups across the entire earth.

The Restoration of Israel

A major spiritual theme of the kingdom is the regeneration of the nation of Israel.

- Spiritual Conversion: Israel will be saved and brought back to their land. Jeremiah 23:6 says, "In His days Judah will be saved, and Israel will dwell safely."
- A New Identity: Israel will be given a new name by God. According to Isaiah 62:4, the land will no longer be called "Forsaken" or "Desolate," but will be called "Hephzibah" (My Delight is in Her) and "Beulah" (Married).
- Global Blessing: The Gentiles will witness Israel's glory and righteousness. The nation will be viewed as the "priests of the Lord," and the ruins of many generations will be rebuilt.

The Atmosphere of Truth

In the Millennial Kingdom, truth will be the standard for all interaction.

- Knowledge of God: Isaiah 11:9 explains that the earth will be full of the knowledge of the Lord.
- Zero Tolerance for Deceit: Because Christ rules with perfect insight, he will not judge by outward appearances or hearsay. Any error or sin will be addressed immediately.
- Flourishing Righteousness: In the current world, godly people are often oppressed. In the kingdom, this is reversed. Psalms 72:7 promises that "In His days the righteous shall flourish."
