“Two Witnesses” Lesson 1 Rev. 11:1-4

23 August 2026

Always remember, no _____; no heaven.

Everybody deposits all of their honor into that city.

The leaves of the Tree of Life are going to be eaten and consumed and enhance your enjoyment of heaven.

Last, let’s look at the _____ of our eternal life.

No more sin. God and the Lamb are there. And His servants shall serve Him.

Our worship is service to Him. Our growing knowledge of Him is service to Him. And our fellowship is service to Him.

Heaven is for those who know and love Jesus Christ.

“The Two Witnesses”

The first 3 chapters of Revelation dealt with looks at the churches in Asia Minor; chapters 4 and 5 gave us a vision of heaven as things were getting ready for the bringing of judgment on the earth; in chapter 6 we begin to see the unfolding of judgment.

Before the final seal, before the seventh trumpet, and before the seventh bowl, the Holy Spirit allows us to stop and

_____.

This is to comfort and encourage the people who will be living through these events.

Our study takes place at the interlude between the sixth and seventh trumpet.

The events leading up to this time have been remarkable to say the least.

In all of this God is still sovereign, He is still in control.

This is when John will consume the little book that is both sweet and bitter.

John is not the only witness to these events – there has been the 144,000 Jews and many saved Gentiles.

There will also be a supernatural act of an angel, flying through heaven preaching the everlasting gospel.

But our study will focus on two very unique evangelists, who will be preaching in the end time.
