“Recognizing an Overcomer” 1 John 5:1-5

30 September 2026

John cycles back through the same themes again and again, and each time John cycles back through, he broadens and widens our understanding of those themes.

But here there is a special note that appears only in this opening section of this chapter. It is the issue of the _____.

1

Christians are described with many wonderful titles.

We are overcomers, victors, winners.

“Overcomers” comes from the Greek word nikaō which means to _____.

Paul writes in Romans 8 that we’re not just overcomers; we’re not just nikē; we are huper nikē - he compounds the word and adds huper, which would be in English saying, “We’re _____-conquerors.”

This means that we are super-conquerors of Satan.

As soon as you believe the truth, you defeat his _____.

We have become overcomers in the realm of life as well. We have overcome _____.

We triumph over what sin and the law want to do to us.

And we also overcome the _____.

It no longer overwhelms us. It no longer is the object of our attraction.

We're _____ the world, no longer _____ the world.

We are super-conquerors. We are the reigning champions and the championship which has been won for us in Christ is a forever championship.

2

We have overcome the invisible spiritual system of evil.

1 John 5:4, "Whatever is born of God overcomes the world."

The world still assaults our fallen flesh and that's why we long for the day of resurrection. Philippians 3:20 puts it this way. "Our citizenship is in heaven." That's where our hearts are, our Father is, our Savior is, our name is written, and our room is being prepared.

THAT'S WHERE WE'RE HEADED!

1 John 5:4, "Whatever is born of God overcomes the world."

The world still assaults our fallen flesh and that's why we long for the day of resurrection. Philippians 3:20 puts it this way. "Our citizenship is in heaven." That's where our hearts are, our Father is, our Savior is, our name is written, and our room is being prepared.

John cycles back through the same themes again and again, and each time John cycles back through, he broadens and widens our understanding of those themes.

But here there is a special note that appears only in this opening section of this chapter. It is the issue of the _____.

1

Christians are described with many wonderful titles.

We are overcomers, victors, winners.

“Overcomers” comes from the Greek word nikaō which means to _____.

Paul writes in Romans 8 that we’re not just overcomers; we’re not just nikē; we are huper nikē - he compounds the word and adds huper, which would be in English saying, “We’re _____-conquerors.”

This means that we are super-conquerors of Satan.

As soon as you believe the truth, you defeat his _____.

We have become overcomers in the realm of life as well. We have overcome _____.

We triumph over what sin and the law want to do to us.

And we also overcome the _____.

It no longer overwhelms us. It no longer is the object of our attraction.

We're _____ the world, no longer _____ the world.

We are super-conquerors. We are the reigning champions and the championship which has been won for us in Christ is a forever championship.

2

We have overcome the invisible spiritual system of evil.

Paul writes in Romans 8 that we’re not just overcomers; we’re not just nikē; we are huper nikē - he compounds the word and adds huper, which would be in English saying, “We’re _____-conquerors.”

This means that we are super-conquerors of Satan.

As soon as you believe the truth, you defeat his _____.

We have become overcomers in the realm of life as well. We have overcome _____.

We triumph over what sin and the law want to do to us.

And we also overcome the _____.

It no longer overwhelms us. It no longer is the object of our attraction.

We're _____ the world, no longer _____ the world.

We are super-conquerors. We are the reigning champions and the championship which has been won for us in Christ is a forever championship.

2

We have overcome the invisible spiritual system of evil.

1 John 5:4, "Whatever is born of God overcomes the world."

The world still assaults our fallen flesh and that's why we long for the day of resurrection. Philippians 3:20 puts it this way. "Our citizenship is in heaven." That's where our hearts are, our Father is, our Savior is, our name is written, and our room is being prepared.
